The four principles of good public scrutiny:

- provides 'critical friend' challenge to executive policy-makers and decision-makers
- enables the voice and concerns of the public and its communities
- is carried out by 'independent-minded governors' who lead and own the scrutiny role
- drives improvement in public services

Health and Wellbeing Panel

To consider matters relating to health in East Herts, in particular to:

1. scrutinise local health issues in the East Herts area;
2. scrutinise partner actions to reduce health inequalities in the East Herts area;
3. scrutinise arrangements for the provision of health care in the East Herts area;
4. make recommendations to the Executive on health issues; and
5. consider matters referred to it by the Executive
