1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 This policy complies with all relevant employment legislation and provisions in the NJC Green Book. This policy reflects the recent legislative changes and is compliant with The Shared Parental Leave Regulations 2014, The Shared Parental Pay (General) Regulations 2014, The Maternity and Adoptions Leave (curtailment of statutory rights to leave) Regulations 2014, Employment Rights Act 1996, Child and Families Act 2014 and Equality Act 2010

2.0 Purpose and Scheme Coverage

- 2.1 The purpose of this document is to provide employees and managers with information on maternity, paternity, parental, surrogacy and adoption leave entitlement.
- 2.2 This scheme is applicable to all employees of East Herts Council. Casual employees may not be eligible for maternity pay, please see section 6.6 for more information.
- 2.3 The Council will endeavour to ensure that an employee does not suffer any detrimental treatment at work whilst exercising their rights to maternity, paternity, parental, surrogacy or adoption leave.

3.0 Notification of Pregnancy and Maternity Leave

- 3.1 Employees are encouraged to tell their manager about their pregnancy as soon as they feel able to, especially if they are feeling unwell or work in an area that may put them at risk.
- 3.2 Employees should also contact the Health and Safety Officer as soon as possible to arrange a work station assessment and maternity risk assessment.
- 3.3 Employees need to notify Human Resources of their pregnancy, the expected week of childbirth and the date they intend to start their maternity leave at least 28 days before their maternity leave begins, or as soon as reasonably practicable, by completing the Maternity Leave Form (Appendix 1). This should be signed by the employee, their manager and returned to Human Resources. Human Resources will reply within 28 days of notification stating the expected date of return from maternity leave. Please see Appendix 2 for a maternity timeline and Appendix 3 for a maternity leave checklist that employees should complete with their managers.

- 3.4 The original MATB1 should also be forwarded to Human Resources. The MATB1 gives confirmation of the expected date of childbirth. This is usually available from the midwife from 21 weeks of pregnancy. The Council are unable to process maternity pay without the MATB1 form.

4.0 Antenatal Care

- 4.1 Any pregnant employee is entitled to take reasonable paid time off to attend antenatal care appointments. Antenatal appointments are those recommended by a registered medical practitioner, midwife or health visitor. These can include relaxation or parent craft classes as well as medical examinations, if recommended by a medical professional.
- 4.2 Employees must agree their time off arrangements with their manager in advance of the appointments and produce their appointment card where appropriate.
- 4.3 Employees on flexi-time should record time to attend appointments as described in the Flexi-Time Guidance in the section relating to hospital appointments.
- 4.4 Fathers/partners have a legal right to unpaid time off to attend up to two antenatal appointments. This also applies to agency workers after twelve (12) weeks on the same assignment. The Council encourages managers to allow employees to take time off to attend antenatal appointments with their partners by taking flexi or annual leave. All requests are subject to line manager approval and will need to be considered in the context of cover available within the team during that period to ensure that the service provided is not disrupted.

5.0 Maternity Leave

5.1 Length of Maternity Leave

5.1.1 An employee is automatically entitled to a period of 26 weeks Ordinary Maternity Leave (OML) and 26 weeks Additional Maternity Leave (AML), regardless of hours of work or length of service, where the appropriate notice has been given. This means an employee can remain on maternity leave for a total period of up to 52 weeks. Employees may receive Statutory Maternity Allowance, Statutory Maternity Pay and/or Occupational Maternity Pay during this period; depending on their eligibility (see section 6 on maternity pay).

5.1.2 Women are required by law to take a minimum of two weeks leave after the birth of the child.

5.2 Conditions applying to Maternity Leave

5.2.1 Maternity leave may start on any day of the week and can commence no earlier than 11 weeks and any time up to the day before the expected date of childbirth (EDC) (except see 5.2.2 below). If the baby is born early (before the planned leave date) the maternity leave will begin from the day after the birth.

5.2.2 An employee who is absent from work due to a pregnancy related reason after the beginning of the fourth week before the expected week of childbirth (EWC) but before the date notified for maternity leave, the maternity leave begins automatically on the day after her first day of absence.

5.2.3 Employees have to be advised that if the baby dies or is still-born after 24 weeks pregnancy, the maternity scheme applies. Where this occurs before 24 weeks (miscarriage) or there is a termination, the needs of the employee and medical opinion will be considered in deciding the appropriate leave (be it sick leave or bereavement leave), according to the circumstances.

6.0 Maternity Pay

6.1 The Council operates two maternity pay schemes:

- Statutory Maternity Pay, which is a legal entitlement to a set weekly payment (providing employees meet the eligibility criteria set out below)
- Occupational Maternity Pay, which is an enhanced payment made by the Council in accordance with their terms and conditions (eligibility for this payment depends on the criteria set out below).

Depending on the employee's length of service, they may have entitlement under one or both of these schemes.

6.2 Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP)

6.2.1 Eligibility for SMP

6.2.2 Statutory maternity pay is payable for up to 39 weeks during maternity leave. To qualify for SMP, employees must have been continuously employed in local government for at least 26 weeks, at the start of the 15th week before the EDC. This 15th week is known as the qualifying week (QW).

6.2.3 If an employee is not entitled to SMP, Payroll will issue them with a form SMP1, explaining why they are not entitled to SMP and how they can claim State Maternity Allowance (SMA). SMA is the same as lower rate SMP or 90% of average weekly earnings, whichever is less.

6.3 Rates of SMP

6.3.1 For the first six weeks, SMP is paid at the higher rate, which is equivalent to 90% of average weekly earnings calculated over the period of eight weeks up to and including the qualifying week.

- 6.3.2 The standard rate of SMP is paid for the remaining 33 weeks (or less if they return to work sooner). This is paid at the lower of either the standard rate set by the Government or 90% of average gross weekly earnings. Standard rate SMP is currently £138.18 per week (correct as at 5 April 2014).
- 6.3.3 Payment of SMP cannot start prior to the 11th week before the EWC. SMP can start from any day of the week in accordance with the date the employee starts their maternity leave.
- 6.3.4 SMP is treated as earnings and is, therefore, subject to PAYE and national insurance deductions.
- 6.3.5 SMP is payable whether or not the employee intends to return to work after maternity leave.

6.4 Occupational Maternity Pay (OMP)

- 6.4.1 To qualify for OMP, employees must have completed at least one year's continuous local government service at the 11th week before the EWC. If an employee has less than one year's continuous local government service at the 15th week before the expected week of childbirth, they will not qualify for OMP, but will still get SMP or SMA as appropriate.
- 6.4.2 If an employee is eligible for OMP, they will receive 12 weeks half pay after the six weeks at 90%, on top of the standard rate SMP (unless half pay plus standard rate SMP exceeds normal pay, see section 6.4.5). The 12 weeks half pay is calculated using the employee's pay at the point of going on maternity leave. OMP can be paid in two ways:
- Paid as it falls due (i.e. in their regular pay)
 - As a lump sum on their return to work
- 6.4.3 The qualifying week for SMP is the 15th week before the week the baby is due but the qualifying week for OMP is the 11th week before the week the baby is due. If the baby is born early, before or during the qualifying week and the employee would have completed 26 weeks employment but for the early birth, the continuous service rule for OMP is satisfied.

6.4.4 If an employee does not return to work following their maternity leave or leaves within 13 weeks of returning to work, they will need to repay their OMP.

6.4.5 If half pay plus standard rate SMP would exceed normal pay, the 12 weeks of 50% enhanced pay will be spread over 20 weeks to ensure that the employee is not paid over and above their normal salary whilst on maternity leave. SMP will be paid as normal.

6.5 Summary of Main Benefits

Length of Service	OML	AML	SMP	OMP
Less than 26 weeks at QW	✓	✓	X (may be entitled to SMA)	X (may be entitled to SMA)
At least 26 weeks at QW but less than 1 year at 11 weeks prior to EWC	✓	✓	6 weeks at 90% of pay plus 33 weeks standard rate SMP	X
More than 1 year at 11 weeks before EWC	✓	✓	6 weeks at 90% of pay plus 33 weeks standard rate SMP	12 weeks half pay (unless half pay plus standard rate SMP exceeds normal pay)

6.6 Casual workers

6.6.1 SMP

6.6.1.1 Casual workers are eligible for SMP as long as they meet the continuous service and earnings conditions. Employees are considered to have continuous service as long as they work for at least one day in every week, a week beginning on a Sunday and ending on a Saturday.

6.6.1.2 If there are weeks where a casual worker did not work, this will not break their continuous service if the reason they did not work was one of the following:

- They were unavailable to work because they were off sick
- They were taking annual leave
- The Council did not require them to work

6.6.1.3 If they did not work for the Council in the 15th week before the week the baby is due for one of these reasons, they will still be able to claim SMP as long as they did further work for the Council after that week.

6.6.1.4 Casual workers who are paid irregularly must find their last pay date before or in the 15th week before the week the baby is due, and count back eight weeks. This is their calculation period.

6.6.1.5 If casual workers do not qualify for SMP, they may be able to claim SMA.

6.6.1.6 Casual workers should seek advice from HR and Payroll if they think they are entitled to SMP.

6.6.2 OMP

6.6.2.1 Casual workers may also be eligible for OMP if they have at least one year's continuous local government service at the 11th week before the EWC (please see 6.6.1.2 for details of what constitutes continuous service).

6.6.2.2 Casual workers should seek advice from HR and Payroll if they think they are entitled to OMP.

7.0 Returning to Work after Maternity Leave

- 7.1 The Council will assume that the employee will return to work on the date specified on their maternity leave form. No written confirmation is required to return to work on that day, although they will receive a letter from Human Resources to remind them of their return to work date.
- 7.2 If the employee wants to return to work from maternity leave earlier than previously planned or later than the previously agreed date she must give eight weeks' notice. If the employee fails to provide sufficient notice the employer may postpone the return so eight weeks' notice is given but may not postpone beyond this.
- 7.3 If an employee decides not to return to work at all after their maternity leave, they must give written notice of their resignation in accordance with the notice period in their contract of employment.
- 7.4 Where an employee is unable to return to work on the expected day due to sickness the absence will be covered by the sickness scheme in the normal way.
- 7.5 For an employee where, because of an interruption of work (whether due to industrial action or some other reason), it is unreasonable to expect her to return on the due date, she may instead return when work resumes or as soon as reasonably practicable.

8.0 Paternity Leave

8.1 Eligibility for Paternity Leave

- 8.1.1 Employees will be eligible for Paternity Leave if they:
- Expect to have responsibility for bringing up the child and
 - Will be taking leave to care for the child and/or support the mother and

- Have been continuously employed for at least 26 weeks by either:
 - the end of the 15th week before the start of the week when the baby is due
 - the end of the week they are notified they are matched with their child and

- They must also be either the:
 - biological father of the child
 - mother's husband or partner (including same-sex relationships)
 - child's adopter or foster under the 'Fostering for adoption' Scheme
 - husband or partner (including same-sex relationships) of the child's adopter and

- Have been employed continuously from:
 - the end of the 15th week before the baby is due up until the actual date of birth
 - the end of the week they are notified they are matched with their child to the actual date of adoption.

8.2 Ordinary Paternity Leave

8.2.1 Employees who meet the criteria as set in 8.1.1 are entitled to two weeks paid Ordinary Paternity leave (OPL). OPL can be taken from the date of birth or up to eight weeks (56 days) from the birth and must be taken as one continuous period.

8.2.2 The Council pays the two weeks OPL at full pay.

8.2.3 Employees should give Human Resources and their manager notice of the EDC by the 15th week before the baby is due. Please see Appendix 4 for the Ordinary Paternity Leave form.

8.3 Additional Paternity Leave

8.3.1 For parents of babies/children born/adopted on or after 5th April 2015 this section on Additional Paternity Leave is no longer relevant and employees should refer to the Shared Parental Leave Policy (SPL)

- 8.3.2 For parents of babies/children born/adopted before 5th April 2015 the following details referring to Additional Paternity Leave and returning to work after Additional Paternity Leave remain applicable.
- 8.3.3 For employees whose partners are returning or have returned to work, they may also be entitled to up to 26 weeks Additional Paternity Leave (APL), subject to them meeting the criteria in 8.1.1. APL must be taken as one continuous period.
- 8.3.4 APL can be taken any time from 20 weeks after the child is born, but it must have finished by the child's first birthday. In the case of adoption it can start anytime between 20 weeks and 52 weeks after the child starts living with the adopter.
- 8.3.5 Employees should give Human Resources and their manager eight weeks' notice before they intend to take APL. Please see Appendix 5 for the Additional Paternity Leave form.
- 8.3.6 Employees will also receive Additional Statutory Paternity Pay (ASPP) during their APL, providing that:
- the child's mother or adopter has been entitled to one or more of the following - Statutory Maternity Leave, Statutory Maternity Pay, Maternity Allowance or Statutory Adoption Leave or Pay and has at least two (2) weeks of unexpired Statutory Pay period remaining (Human Resources will check this with the mother / adopter's employer)
 - the child's mother or adopter has returned to work and ceased claiming any relevant pay (Human Resources will check this with the mother / adopter's employer)
 - the employee intends to care for their child during the Additional Statutory Paternity Pay Period.

8.3.7 ASPP is only payable to the employee during the period of their partner's 39 week Maternity Allowance, Statutory Maternity or Statutory Adoption Pay period. ASPP is paid at the same rate as SMP, currently £138.18 per week or 90% of earnings, whichever is lesser (correct as at 5 April 2014).

8.3.8 Employees have the right to take unpaid Additional Paternity Leave if they meet the eligibility criteria for leave but not pay. All Additional Paternity Leave taken after the end of the Statutory Maternity Pay, Maternity Allowance or Statutory Adoption Pay period is unpaid.

8.4 Returning to Work after Additional Paternity Leave

8.4.1 The Council will assume that the employee will return to work on the date specified on their additional paternity leave form. No written confirmation is required to return to work on that day, although they will receive a letter from Human Resources to remind them of their return to work date.

8.4.2 If the employee wants to return to work from additional paternity leave earlier than previously planned or later than the previously agreed date they must give six (6) weeks' notice. If the employee fails to provide sufficient notice the employer may postpone the return so six weeks' notice is given, but may not postpone beyond this.

8.4.3 If an employee decides not to return to work at all after their additional paternity leave, they must give written notice of their resignation in accordance with the notice period in their contract of employment.

9.0 Adoption Leave

9.1 Entitlement to Adoption Leave

9.1.1 Employees can apply to take Adoption Leave if they are newly matched with a child by an adoption agency or they are fostering a child under the 'Fostering for adoption' scheme. There are no qualifying conditions for eligible adopters and employees may apply for adoption leave from the first day of employment with the Council. Agency workers are eligible to this right at twelve (12) weeks in the same assignment.

9.1.2 Employees who have had an adoption match should complete the Adoption Match form and pass it to HR in order to secure their statutory entitlement. The adoption agency must be recognised in the UK.

9.1.3 Employees will not qualify for Statutory Adoption Leave or Pay if they:

- arrange a private adoption
- become a special guardian
- adopt a stepchild

9.2 Adoption Leave

9.2.1 As with maternity leave, employees are entitled to a period of 26 weeks Ordinary Adoption Leave (OAL) and 26 weeks Additional Adoption Leave (AAL).

9.2.2 Adoption leave starts on the date the employee has specified or on the expected date of placement. Adoption Leave can start:

- up to 14 days before the child starts living with the employee (UK adoptions)
- when the child arrives in the UK or within 28 days of this date (overseas adoptions)

9.2.3 Employees who are the primary adopter have a legal right to unpaid time off to attend up to five (5) adoption meetings. The secondary adopter has the right to unpaid time off to attend up to two (2) appointments. The Council encourages managers to allow employees to take time off to attend antenatal appointments with their partners by taking flexi or annual leave. All requests are subject to line manager approval and will need to be considered in the context of what cover is available within the team during that period to ensure that the service provided is not disrupted.

9.3 Adoption Pay

9.3.1 Adoption pay mirrors maternity pay; please see section 6 for more details.

9.4 Placement Disrupted

9.4.1 Where after starting the leave, an employee is notified that the child will not be placed, or after the child is placed, the child dies or is returned to the adoption agency, the employee will not be entitled to the full adoption leave period. In this situation the adoption leave will end eight weeks after the end of the week in which the disruption occurred. Additional discretionary or unpaid leave may also be granted in such instances, managers should contact HR for advice.

9.5 Notification of Adoption Leave

9.5.1 Applications for leave should be made to HR and the line manager within at least 28 days of the expected date of placement or if the employee wants the leave to start on a predetermined date, notice must be provided at least 28 days before that date. Please see Appendix 6 for the Adoption/Surrogacy Leave form.

9.6 Returning to Work after Adoption Leave

9.6.1 The Council will assume that the employee will return to work on the date specified on their adoption leave form. No written confirmation is required to return to work on that day, although they will receive a letter from Human Resources to remind them of their return to work date.

9.6.2 If the employee wants to return to work from adoption leave earlier than previously planned or later than the previously agreed date they must give eight weeks' notice. If the employee fails to provide sufficient notice the employer may postpone the return so eight weeks' notice is given, but may not postpone beyond

9.6.3 If disruption on the placement occurs during AAL, the employee should give eight weeks' notice, as soon as the disruption occurs.

9.6.4 Employees who fail to return to work after a period of adoption leave or resign before completing three months service on return from adoption leave will be required to repay their Occupational Adoption Pay (OAP).

10.0 Fostering Leave

10.1 Employees who have a fostering arrangement are entitled to take up to 5 days discretionary leave in accordance with the General Leave Policy. The purpose of the leave is to allow the employee to attend training or meetings related to the Foster Care arrangement.

10.2 Additionally, employees with a 'Fostering for Adoption' arrangement with a local authority will be entitled to Adoption leave, Paternity leave and Shared Parental leave in accordance with the Council's policies.

11.0 Keeping in Touch (KIT) days

11.1 An employee on maternity, adoption leave can do some work for the employer during their maternity / adoption leave pay period under their contract of service without losing their SMP / SAP for that week. They can work for up to 10 days, whether consecutive or not. This enables the employee to undertake odd days training or to go into work on occasion to 'Keep in Touch' (KIT). The employee would not lose their pay for the week in which the work is done or need to end their maternity/adoption leave. Whether the employee just goes in for one hour or a whole day, it will still be counted as one day for KIT purposes.

11.2 This provision is designed to help ease the employee's eventual return to work and to make it easier for them to keep in touch with their employer during their leave from work.

- 11.3 Employees will be paid a full day's pay for each KIT day worked, minus any statutory or occupational maternity pay to ensure it does not exceed a normal day's pay.
- 11.4 Employees should complete a KIT day claim form (Appendix 7) for each KIT day worked and forward to Payroll for payment by the 6th of the month. Claim forms must be signed by an authorised manager.

12.0 Contractual Relationship during Absence

- 12.1 Having granted a period of paid or unpaid leave, the contract of employment between both parties remains in existence and therefore a commitment to maintain confidence, trust and act in good faith during the period of leave.
- 12.2 Employees on periods of extended leave will be required to maintain regular contact with their manager and, if appropriate, inform them of any changes in circumstance which may affect their intention to return to work.
- 12.3 Managers should maintain reasonable contact with employees on maternity / adoption leave. The amount of contact that is reasonable depends on whether the employee prefers to have frequent or minimal contact with their manager. Managers should discuss how they will keep in touch with the employee before they begin their maternity / adoption leave. If the employee requests in writing not to be contacted whilst on leave, the manager should only contact the employee to advise them of situations which may affect the contractual relationship such as a restructure.
- 12.4 Employees can continue to access the intranet from home to view details of any permanent or temporary vacancies. If an employee does not have internet access they can contact HR to find out details of any vacancies.
- 12.5 Employees suspected of abusing the provisions of these procedures or fraudulently applying for leave will be subject to disciplinary investigation as detailed in the Disciplinary Procedure.

13.0 Surrogacy Parents

13.1 Where a child is born to a surrogate mother, the intended parents can become the child's legal parents by applying for a parental order. One of the intended parents must be genetically related to the child and the child must live with the intended parents. Please see Appendix 6 for the Adoption/Surrogacy Leave form.

13.2 Where a couple has a parental order in relation to a child, or is applying for one, one of the parents can be eligible for adoption leave and pay and the other can be eligible for paternity leave and pay. The couple must elect which of them will take adoption leave. An employee who takes adoption leave in these circumstances can curtail their adoption leave and take shared parental leave with the other parent, provided that the parents both meet the relevant eligibility requirements. Please see Shared Parental Leave Policy.

13.3 Adoption leave, paternity leave and shared parental leave are available to employees who are, or expect to be, the parents of a child under a parental order, where the child's expected week of birth begins on or after 5 April 2015.

13.4 Employees who intend to apply for a parental order and expect to become the child's legal parents in a surrogacy situation have the right to unpaid time off work to accompany the birth mother to up to two antenatal appointments.

14.0 Impact on Conditions of Service

14.1 Generally

14.1.1 An employee returning to local government following a break for maternity, paternity or adoption reasons will be entitled to have previous service recognised for the purpose of calculating:

- Annual Leave

- Periods of Notice
- Sickness Payments
- Redundancy Payments
- Maternity Leave

14.1.2 There may be implications on other conditions of service. These have been detailed below.

14.2 Annual Leave

14.2.1 The entitlement to annual leave continues to accrue whilst on maternity / adoption leave. Where the leave period straddles two annual leave years, annual leave accrued up to the end of the first leave year should be taken before the commencement of the leave period in order that it is not lost.

14.2.2 An employee requesting to return to work on a part-time contract will normally take all annual leave accrued on the full-time contract before the new working arrangements commence.

14.2.3 Employees are entitled to paid leave for each of the bank holidays that fall during their maternity / adoption leave and these should be taken upon their return to work.

14.3 Pension

14.3.1 An employee who is a member of the Local Government Pension Scheme (LGPS) will continue to pay contributions; however, this will be based on the employee's individual contribution rate of their actual earnings during maternity / adoption leave.

14.3.2 An employee wishing to maintain their contributions or make contributions during the unpaid period of maternity / adoption leave must contact Payroll before their leave commences.

14.3.3 For further guidance contact Payroll or the London Pensions Fund Authority (LPFA). An employee with a private pension should contact their pension provider for guidance.

14.4 Car Contributions

- 14.4.1 Payments towards a car loan will continue to be deducted from an employee's salary. An employee taking unpaid additional maternity / adoption leave must make arrangements with Payroll to continue to make payments during that period.
- 14.4.2 Employees in receipt of an essential user allowance will continue to receive this payment throughout their paid maternity / adoption leave. If an employee moves onto unpaid leave, the payments will cease until the employee returns to work.
- 14.4.3 An employee in possession of a council vehicle must ensure that it is left with East Herts District Council before they take maternity / adoption leave. The vehicle will be returned to the employee on their return to work.

14.5 Student Loans

- 14.5.1 Student loan repayments will continue throughout paid maternity / adoption leave until such point that monthly salary does not meet the income threshold set by the Student Loans Company. At this point, repayments will stop until the employee is earning above the income threshold. Employees should contact the Student Loans Company for more information.

14.6 Council Property

- 14.6.1 An employee will not be required to return items such as a mobile phone, laptop, security cards or uniforms throughout maternity / adoption / parental leave.
- 14.6.2 An employee not returning to the Council's employ must ensure that all Council property is returned with their notice of resignation.

14.7 Childcare Vouchers

14.7.1 Employees who become pregnant / are planning to adopt and are in the childcare voucher scheme must consider the implications of this before the period up to and including the qualifying week (weeks 17-25 weeks of pregnancy). This is because the salary sacrifice element of the scheme will have an impact on the calculation for the employee's Higher Rate SMP / SAP and Occupational Maternity / Adoption pay. The employee's average earnings calculation, which is used to assess this payment, will be on the employee's salary sacrifice earnings amount and not on the employee's full salary.

14.7.2 Employees have the choice of:

- Continuing their childcare vouchers. Higher rate SMP / SAP and Occupational Maternity / Adoption pay will be reduced but the Council will pay for the value of the childcare vouchers throughout the maternity leave period, including any unpaid maternity leave as childcare vouchers are classed as a non-cash benefit. The exception to this will be during the 12 weeks Occupational Maternity / Adoption pay when the employee will pay for the value of the vouchers. Employees should contact HR for advice if their Occupational Maternity / Adoption pay is not enough to cover the cost of the vouchers during this period. The employee will continue to receive their vouchers via the normal methods.
- Ceasing their childcare vouchers before the 8 week period up to and including the qualifying week (weeks 17-25 weeks of pregnancy). Employees can use the "lifestyle changes" clause to leave the scheme. Their SMP / SAP and OMP / OAP will not be reduced but they will be unable to re-join the scheme until their maternity / adoption leave has ended and they have returned to work.

14.7.3 Employees requiring further assistance on childcare vouchers and maternity / adoption leave should contact Human Resources for more information.

14.8 Rights upon Return to Work

- 14.8.1 An employee has the right to return to the job in which they were employed under their original contract of employment and terms and conditions not less favourable than those, which would have been applicable to them if they had not been absent. Where this is not practicable by reason of redundancy, an employee will be entitled to be offered suitable alternative employment where one exists.
- 14.8.2 Suitable alternative employment may also be offered in exceptional circumstances other than redundancy (e.g. a general re-organisation), which would have occurred if the employee were not absent.
- 14.8.3 The work to be done should be suitable to the employee and appropriate to the circumstances. The capacity and place in which the employee is to be employed and the terms and conditions of employment should not be less favourable to the employee if the employee had been able to return to the job in which they were originally employed.

15.0 Flexible Working

- 15.1 Please refer to the Flexible Working Policy for details on applying for Flexible Working.
- 15.2 Employees returning from maternity / adoption leave should make their request to work flexibly in sufficient time to enable arrangements to be looked at and considered. Therefore the request should be made at least 12 weeks before the anticipated return to work.

16.0 Parental Leave

- 16.1 There is a right for both parents to take up to 18 weeks unpaid parental leave per parent per child, up until your child's 18th birthday. This leave is also available to parents who adopt a baby/child..
- 16.2 Employees must have more than one year's continuous service in local government and must either be the parent of the child, named on the child's birth/adoption certificate or have legal parental responsibility for the child.

- 16.3 The Council will endeavour to make parental leave available to those with parental responsibilities but who do not fall under the legal definition. This might include foster parents, adoptive parents prior to placement, grandparents with a significant parenting role and stepparents. Cases will be considered on an individual basis, employees should contact HR for more information.
- 16.4 Employees can take parental leave at the end of maternity/adoption /shared parental leave providing they give 21 days' notice.
- 16.5 To apply for parental leave employees should write to their Head of Service who will forward the request to Human Resources and take advice. Employees must give 21 days' notice before their intended start date.
- 16.6 The limit on how much parental leave can be taken a year is 4 weeks. Unless the child is disabled, leave should be taken in blocks of one week. A 'week' equals the length of time an employee normally works in a week.
- 16.7 Managers cannot turn down a request for parental leave, but can ask employees to postpone it if it would cause significant disruption to the business, e.g. if leave was requested:
- over a period of peak seasonal production
 - at the same time as other employees have requested leave
 - when the employee's absence would unduly harm the business
- 16.8 If a manager needs to postpone a request for parental leave, they must consult with the employee about a new date and must write to the employee within seven days of receiving the employee's notification explaining why the leave needs to be postponed and confirming the new start and end date. Managers must allow the employee to take the same amount of parental leave as they originally applied for. If the postponement goes past the end of the entitlement period (e.g. after the child's fifth / eighteenth birthday), they must still be allowed to take the leave.

16.9 Any parental leave taken in previous employment is deducted from an employee's parental leave entitlement.

17.0 Review

17.1 This policy will be reviewed every three years or sooner if there are any changes in legislation requiring amendments to be made.

Guidance Notes

Please read below for guidance on how to complete the Maternity Leave Form.

Personal Details

Please ensure that every section is completed.

Leave & Pay Details

Maternity leave and pay are separate entities.

Maternity leave dates should exclude any annual leave taken before or after. If you give birth earlier than expected, maternity leave will start from this point and leave will be adjusted.

Maternity pay

Dependant on your continuous local government service, employees are entitled to different options regarding their maternity pay. Please select 1 statement that applies to you.

Pay options – the 3 columns correspond to the entitlements above. Please ensure you only complete the column that applies to you.

The rate that maternity leave is paid decreases after a given amount of weeks. You should indicate how many weeks you would like to be paid at the set rate in the relevant box. The number of weeks should all add up to the number of weeks you are on maternity leave.

Guidance for Entitlement A

- Up to 6 weeks at 90%.
- Up to 12 weeks of either; SMP + 50% enhanced pay or SMP + 50% enhanced pay (which will be deferred until 3 months after return from maternity leave).
- Up to 21 weeks of SMP.
- Up to 13 weeks of additional (unpaid) maternity leave.

Employees that fall into Entitlement A have the option of 12 weeks of 50% enhanced maternity pay; this must be repaid to the Council if they do not return to the Council after maternity leave. For employees unsure whether they will return, they can select the option which will pay the 50% enhanced maternity pay, 3 months after they return.

Guidance for Entitlement B

- Up to 6 weeks at 90%.
- Up to 12 weeks at SMP.
- Up to a further 21 weeks of SMP.
- Up to 13 weeks of additional (unpaid) maternity leave.

Guidance for Entitlement C

Job Centre Plus will pay your SMP; you should provide a copy of your MATB1 to HR and take the original to Job Centre Plus.

Agreement

Please read the agreement carefully before you sign this form. It should then be countersigned by your line manager (authorised officer) before you forward to HR.
