ESSENTIAL REFERENCE PAPER 'A'

Contribution to the Council's Corporate Priorities/ Objectives for 2015/16:  Consultation:  None.  Legal:  The Authority is required, before the beginning of each year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  Financial:  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Piete See legal implications above.	Candula !	Decade
Corporate Priorities/ Objectives for 2015/16:  Consultation:  None.  Legal:  The Authority is required, before the beginning of each year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  Financial:  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:		-
Priorities/ Objectives for 2015/16:  Consultation:  None.  Legal:  The Authority is required, before the beginning of each year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  Financial:  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:		Deliver strong and relevant services.
Objectives for 2015/16:  Consultation:  None.  The Authority is required, before the beginning of each year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  Financial:  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:	· -
Consultation:  None.  The Authority is required, before the beginning of each year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:	Priorities/	Prosperity
Consultation:  None.  The Authority is required, before the beginning of each year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  Financial:  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:	Objectives for	Deliver cost effective services.
Legal:  The Authority is required, before the beginning of each year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:	2015/16:
Legal:  The Authority is required, before the beginning of each year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:
year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  None  None	Consultation:	None.
year, to make a scheme for the payment of specified allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  None  None	Logal:	The Authority is required, before the beginning of each allowances. Before making a scheme, the Authority shall have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:	Legai.
have regard to the recommendations made to it by its IRP.  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:
Financial:  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:  None
Financial:  The Panel recommendation, if accepted, would have no significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:
significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:		IRP.
significant financial implications.  The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:	F	TI D
The additional cost of increasing the SRA for the Chair of the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:	Financial:	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:		significant financial implications.
the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.  A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:
A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:
illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:		the Health and Wellbeing Committee is £1.2k per annum.
illustrative purposes, equates to a cost of approximately £3.9k.  Human Resource:
£3.9k.  Human Resource:		A 1.0% increase on 2015/16 allowance levels, for Human None Resource:
Resource:		£3.9k.
Resource:
	Human	None
Diele Coo legal implications above	Resource:
Diele Coologe implications shave
KISK   See legal implications above.	Risk	See legal implications above.
Management:	Management:
Health and None	Health and	None
Wellbeing:	Wellbeing:	