Details of authority to make this decision

This is an executive decision being made under authority delegated to the Head of Operations under Part 3c, paragraph 17.18 of the Council's Constitution.

Decision

That the Head of Operations acting under authority delegated within Part 3c, paragraph 17.18:
(A)	Authorises that the Traffic Regulation Order be "Made" under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 in respect of modified "H3" Resident Permit Zone, to include Davies Street - thus incorporating permit rights for residents to enable parking, during controlled times, in surrounding H3 RPZ roads.

1. Background

- 1.1. The council agreed to promote a Traffic Regulation Order seeking to incorporate Davies Street residents into the wider H3 Resident Permit Zone (RPZ) to enable eligible residents to park vehicles in the controlled RPZ road space.
- 1.2. The council responded to the submission of a petition - demonstrating majority support by Davies Street residents - requesting inclusion in the H3 RPZ. The proposal was fully supported by East Herts ward Members.

2. Report

- 2.1. East Herts officers carefully considered the perceived impacts on surrounding roads and concluded the impacts as minimal. Officers request authority to overrule one formal objection received to the Traffic Regulation Order consultation.

- 2.2. The costs associated with making the Traffic Regulation Order, following the act of sealing, in respect of press advert costs will be met from existing Parking Service budgets.
- 2.3. The costs associated with installing new signage in Davies Street will met from existing Parking Service budgets.
