Stage 1 - Site / broad location identification Determine Desktop review of assessment area existing information and site size Call for Sites/ broad Site/ broad location locations survey Stage 2 - Site / broad location assessment Estimating the Achievability development Suitability Availability including viability potential Overcoming constraints Stage 3 - Windfall assessment Determine housing / economic development potential of windfall sites (where justified) Stage 4 - Assessment review Assessment of Review assessment development need and prepare draft for housing and trajectory. Enough No economic sites / broad development uses locations? Yes Stage 5 – Final evidence base Evidence base Monitoring Deliverability (5-year Informs land supply) and development plan developability for preparation housing